The Historical Museum of Southern Florida is one of the largest private regional history museums in the United States. Founded in 1940 as a non-profit corporation, the museum is recognized for excellence in programming and management by the Florida Department of State and national museum services organizations. First accredited by the American Association of Museums in 1979, the Historical Museum was re-accredited by this body in 2009. The museum maintains its own growing collection of maps focusing on Florida and the Caribbean.

The Historical Museum's facility hosts a 10,000 square-foot permanent gallery and a changing gallery of special exhibitions. Educational programs include historic walking and boat tours, special programs, lectures, folklife presentations and a variety of children's programs. South Florida History magazine, books, and the scholarly journal, Tequesta, are among the museum's many publications. The museum store offers one of the largest selections of South Florida and Caribbean books.

THE FITZGERALD & KANNER TRUST FOR HISTORIC MAPS

The Fitzgerald & Kanner Trust for Historic Maps was established to endow the Miami International Map Fair, to support the growth of the museum's map collection, and to foster an appreciation of historic maps through exhibitions, publications and educational programming.

In 1990, to honor his service to the Historical Museum and his interest in maps, an anonymous donor established the Joseph H. Fitzgerald Trust for Historic Maps as a part of the museum's endowment. The Trust has grown through donations of generous friends and map enthusiasts.

The Trust recognizes the two individuals most responsible for the continued success of the Map Fair. The collaboration between Founder and Chairman, Joe Fitzgerald and Map Fair Manager, Marcia Kanner, both former Historical Museum board chairs, has helped the Map Fair become a premier event in the world of maps and a signature event for the museum. Beyond their personal commitment they have made past gifts and pledged future gifts to support the Trust. In so doing it is their hope that the Miami International Map Fair will continue in perpetuity.
